The Contract

The Booking Form is an application for a Stand at the Exhibition/Sponsorship of the Event/advertising in the event brochure. A legally binding contract will only come into existence when the Company accepts the booking in writing whether by counter-signing the Booking Form and returning a copy to the Exhibitor or otherwise.

In the course of negotiations leading up to the Contract, both the Company and the Exhibitor or their respective representatives may have made statements or forecasts about the Exhibition, including, for example, attendance figures, other exhibitors, exhibits or events which may form part of the Exhibition, the position of the Stand and/or the quality of exhibits. Because the Company's plans for the Exhibition may change and certain matters are not under the Company's control - for example, the Company cannot guarantee the attendance of other exhibitors or the public - each of the Company and the Exhibitor confirms that it has not entered into the Contract in reliance on any statement or forecast made by or on behalf of the other of them. Accordingly, any liability of either party for misrepresentation (whether or not the representation in question is of the same type as those set out in this condition) is expressly excluded. This exclusion does not apply to a fraudulent misrepresentation.

The Exhibitor will be permitted to manage the Stand/Space as the Company's licensee. The Exhibitor will not obtain any right of exclusive possession or occupation of or any proprietary interest in the Stand.

The Exhibitor may not assign its rights under the Contract or sublet, part with or share occupation of the Stand/Space or any part of it. Nonetheless, with the prior written approval of the Company, the Exhibitor may share occupation of the Stand/Space with other companies which are in the same group as the Exhibitor or which are associated in business with the Exhibitor.

Payment

The Exhibitor/sponsor/advertiser will pay the Fee by in full shown on the Booking Form on the date(s) shown on the Booking Form. Without payment the Exhibitor can not exhibit at the event.

Withdrawal

The Exhibitor/Sponsor/Advertiser may withdraw from the Exhibition at any time by notifying the Company of its wish to withdraw in writing. In addition, the Company may by written notice to the Exhibitor accept non-payment by the Exhibitor/Sponsor/Advertiser by the due date for payment of any instalment of the Fee as notice of the Exhibitor's/Sponsor's/Advertiser's withdrawal from the Exhibition. In the event of the Exhibitor's/Sponsor's/Advertiser's withdrawal, a cancellation fee calculated in accordance with Condition 4.1 will become immediately payable by the Exhibitor/sponsor/Advertiser to the Company.

In the event of an exhibitor withdrawing the Company may resell or reallocate the Stand allocated to the Exhibitor. Even if it does so, the Company will be under no obligation to reimburse or reduce any payment made or to be made by the Exhibitor under Condition directly above.

Withdrawal will be deemed to take place on _____ the date upon which notice of withdrawal is received by the Company or given by the Company in the case of non-payment by the Exhibitor of any instalment of the Fee.

Allocation & Layout

The Company may make changes in the layout of the Exhibition Space between the time when the Contract is entered into and the Exhibition is held for any reason, including, for example, the need to accommodate additional features or events in the Exhibition or to comply with any requirements of the Authorities and/or the owner of the Venue. Accordingly, the allocation of a Stand number or description of a particular position on the plan for or the layout of the Exhibition is provisional and subject to alteration. If the size or features of the Stand/Space shall be reduced as a result of any such alteration, the amount of the Fee shall be reduced pro rata to the reduction in the size of the Stand. In no circumstances will the Exhibitor be required, without the Exhibitor's prior agreement, to pay an increased Fee.

Cancellation, Postponement or Change of Venue

The Company may at any time cancel, postpone or move the Exhibition to another venue/host company if the Company thinks fit. The Company will notify the Exhibitor as soon as possible if the Exhibition is cancelled or postponed or moved. If the Exhibition is cancelled, the Company will repay to the Exhibitor/Sponsor/Advertiser (without interest) any instalments of the Fee paid by the Client to the Company and the Contract will be cancelled. If the Exhibition is postponed or moved to another venue/host company, the Contract will remain in force for the new dates and provided that the new dates and/or provider are in the reasonable opinion of the Company appropriate for the Exhibition.

Except as expressly provided in this Condition directly above, the Company shall have no liability in contract or in tort or otherwise to the Client arising out of or in respect of any cancellation or postponement of the Exhibition or of it being moved to a new Venue howsoever arising.

Exhibition Rules

The Exhibitor agrees to obey any reasonable instructions given to him/her by or on behalf of the Company in connection with the Show.

The venue/host provider may also impose certain rules and conditions. All exhibitors agree they will comply with such instruction.

Liability

In addition to its liability to pay the Fee, the Exhibitor will be liable to indemnify the Company and keep the Company indemnified against any claims made against or liabilities incurred by the Company as a consequence of any breach by the Exhibitor of any its obligations under the Contract or otherwise arising as a result of anything done or omitted to be done by the Exhibitor in connection with the Exhibition or at the Venue.

The Company and venue/host provider will provide security to control access to and from the exhibition.

- (b) the amount recovered by the Company under any policy of insurance in respect of the claim made against it by the Exhibitor/Sponsor/Advertiser, plus the amount of any excess or deductible which, in accordance with the conditions of the insurance policy, is to be borne by the Company.

These limitations on liability do not apply in respect of any fraudulent misrepresentation.

In certain circumstances the Exhibitor may wish to organise activities or events on its Stand/Space which are or may in the opinion of the Company involve some risk to participants at the Exhibition or their property. In those circumstances, the Company may require the Exhibitor:

- (1) to enter into a separate indemnity by way of deed in favour of the Company and/or such other person as the Company may specify in respect of any liability arising from such activity or event; and
- (2) require the Exhibitor to obtain from participants a form of waiver and/or indemnity in terms approved by the Company.

Insurance

The exhibitor shall carry Public Liability insurance against personal injury, death or damage to or loss of property by any cause whatsoever. Such insurance must be for a minimum of £1,000,000.

If the Exhibitor elects not to pay the Insurance Premium it shall provide the Organiser with a valid written certificate of sufficient insurance no later than 4 weeks prior to the start of the Exhibition. In the case of failure on the part of the Exhibitor to provide such a valid certificate, the Organiser will be entitled to terminate this Agreement forthwith and the Exhibitor shall be liable to pay in full for all monies payable under this Agreement to the extent not already paid on such termination. If an Exhibitor enters into this Agreement less than 6 weeks before the start of the Exhibition, the Exhibitor shall be required to either provide the Organiser with a valid written certificate of sufficient insurance or pay the Insurance Premium at the date of entry into this Agreement.

The Exhibitor shall also ensure that it has full indemnity insurance against the risks in respect of loss, damage, or injury to third party goods and persons.

The Exhibitor/Sponsor/Advertiser agrees to provide such information to the Company as is required by it in connection with the program. The Company may also disclose Data to third parties (including, without limitation, the Authorities) if it is under (or reasonably believes it is under) a duty to disclose or share Data in order to (1) comply with any legal obligation, or (2) enforce or apply the Contract or any other agreements relating to the Exhibition, or (3) protect the rights, property, or safety of the Company, its customers, or others.
